WMU Sunday:In the 1800's a lady by the name of Annie Armstrong became convicted that the women of the church should be united in supporting missionaries on the field. She wrote hundreds of letters encouraging the women to come together to pray and support financially those who had sacrificed to go. From that movement, the Woman's Missionary Union was born. Today, the WMU is leading Southern Baptist Churches to pray for and support financially missions, but there is much more. Wmu leads in Compassion Ministries including, Pure Water, Pure Love which provides clean water for missionaries and the people they serve; World Crafts, partners with local artisans all over the world to give women a step-up with dignity; Project Help, a WMU initiative addressing social and moral issues, currently mental health; Christian Job Corp, preparing adults for employment and life; Global Hunger Relief; and Baptist Nursing Fellowship. WMU emphasis for 2026 is What Joy! with the objectives of passion about the lost, compelled by love, generous in sharing and serving with great delight. Our emphasis is to learn about missions, pray for missions, support missions, do missions and tell about Jesus. All ladies are invited and encouraged to learn more by attending our monthly sessions, the 2nd Sunday afternoon . See Stephanie Howell for more details.

Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
